

Short Term Mission Internship

Praying Pelican Missions is looking for college-age interns to join our summer staff in Belize, Jamaica, or Mexico for four to ten weeks during the dates of May 22–August 30, 2010.

A few details:

Each intern will be an integral member of our 3-6 person leadership teams as we host churches each week. We will be staying with the participating teams across the country and be providing them with a 5-8-day mission trip in Belize, Jamaica, or Mexico. Responsibilities could include lining up ministry opportunities and ministry sites, restaurants, recreation, and transportation. It could also include preparing breakfast and snacks, leading worship and debriefing, participating in meetings, and generally guiding each church's trip. Our goal is to use each team member's strengths and interests to best serve the churches and groups.

Benefits:

- ◆ Use your gifts and talents for God's glory
- ◆ Practice and develop many skills, including leadership, ministry, organization, management, and communication
- ◆ Encourage the church groups from the U.S. and help them grow in their faith through missions
- ◆ Resume and reference builder
- ◆ Opportunity to serve the people of Belize or Jamaica
- ◆ Work alongside and learn from experienced mission trip leaders and assistant leaders
- ◆ Participate in numerous mission trips for a relatively small cost
- ◆ Snorkel and/or swim in the Caribbean once a week with the church groups
- ◆ Earn college credits
- ◆ All working expenses and many living expenses are covered by Praying Pelican Missions while interning in Belize, Jamaica, or Mexico

Requirements:

Applicant is required to be a devoted Christian who believes in Jesus Christ as their Lord and Savior and that the Bible is the inspired, infallible word of God. Short-term missions experience is required and international missions experience is preferred. Local ministry experience within your community, church, or school is necessary. Applicants should be selfless, ministry minded, hard working, energetic, reliable, flexible, enjoy working with people, and need to be a team player. Interns should be available to work in Belize, Jamaica, or Mexico for a minimum of 4 weeks and up to 10 weeks during the summer of 2009. In addition, there is a two-day leadership staff retreat scheduled for April 30-May 2, 2010 in Minneapolis, MN which we require all leadership staff to attend.

Cost:

- ◆ $650 (approx.) for plane ticket to Belize, Jamaica, or Mexico
- ◆ $200/week to cover some living expenses (food, lodging in hotels, insurance, recreation etc.)
